Queen Kapi'olani Hotel Hosts Art Show & "Dive-In Movie," Presented by Greenroom Art Gallery Diamond Head

HONOLULU, HI -- (Thursday, August 1, 2019) – Queen Kapi'olani Hotel will host "Art Wave" on Saturday, August 24 from 6 to 10 p.m. Presented by Greenroom Art Gallery Diamond Head, the evening will showcase new work from popular local artists Aaron Char, Chris Viverito, Jess Vide and Tommy Pierucki.

Enjoy a summer night at the Queen Kapi'olani hotel with local art, surf culture, music and libations. Meet and mingle with the artists poolside while you enjoy the Sunset glow of Diamond Head with cold drinks and live music. Check out the artists' newest collections and experience "Dive In Movie," featuring a screening of the two surf classics by Jack Johnson "The September Sessions & Thicker Than Water" projected poolside on the "big screen."

Check in at the Greenroom Art Gallery in the hotel lobby beginning at 6:00 p.m. and the first 100 people will receive a complimentary gift from Greenroom and a drink ticket courtesy of the artists.

About the Artists

AARON CHAR: His illustrations reflect the stories of the ocean and surfing as a Waikiki Beachboy. He creates the art, not only for his fellow Beachboys, but also for everyone who enjoys the Waikiki surf culture.

CHRIS VIVERITO: Aka The Captain Surfs. His creative output is woven with narrative, woodwork, painting, and music. Chris has been living in the islands for 20+ years and on the beaches of the mainland, he is now based on the North Shore of Oahu.

JESS VIDE: An Australian aerial photographer, currently based on Oahu, Hawaii. Jess draws all her creative ideas from being around the ocean and the outdoors, including drawing, painting, and now photography.

Tommy Pierucki: Ever since catching his first wave with his surfboard in the early 2000s in Waikiki, Tommy has been determined to spend the rest of his days enjoying and capturing the beauty of the islands and its amazing people through his camera lens.
