(WAIKIKI BEACH, HI; June 17, 2019)— Queen Kapi'olani Hotel, Waikiki Beach debuts its Picnic at the Park Package, Summer Promotion, and Save and Splurge, offering new ways to save on quintessential Waikiki experiences just in time for summer travels to Hawaii. Speaking to all the island has to offer, the four-star, full-service hotel immerses guests into a fun Hawaiian lifestyle with savings across the property's Hawaiianinspired activities and programming, onsite dining experiences, O'ahu's cultural venues, and more.

"Our new package and promotion provide travelers with a unique way to live like a local and make the most out of their vacations through savings and exclusive offerings on experiences both on and off property," says Joy Tomita, Director of Marketing of the Queen Kapi'olani Hotel.

The Picnic at The Park Package offers guests a sunny picnic lunch from Knots Coffee Roasters to enjoy at Kapi'olani Park, in perfect view of Diamond Head and just steps away from the hotel. Following their picnic, guests can enjoy admission to the Honolulu Zoo. The package is currently available for stays through December 19, 2019 for guests who book City View Room categories or higher.

Queen Kapi'olani Hotel's Summer Promotion gives guests 15% off the Best Available Rate & Waived Hospitality Fees for reservations on all of the hotel's 315 recently upgraded guestrooms and suites, which feature coastal color palettes, modern amenities and artwork by acclaimed local artist Mike Fields. Save and Splurge this summer by booking the Studio City View or Studio Ocean View Rooms. With rates starting from $189, these cozy rooms are the perfect option for guests looking to save a little on hotel rooms and splurge on shopping, dining or experiencing the rest of O'ahu. In addition to great rates, all guests receive a unique selection of Queen Kapi'olani amenities that include a one-time $20 food and beverage credit, reusable QK logo Water Bottles, and complimentary on-site programming such as daily surf demonstrations from Hans Hedemann Surf School, yoga on the go kit, and sunrise yoga classes. What's more, guests receive discounts to on-site activities such as haku lei making as well as special rates to local cultural venues such as the 'Iolani Palace and Bishop Museum.
